Bomber Crew From Korea To Be Village Guests For Four Days Starting Armistice Day, Nov. 11

Coming Home After Carrying War to Enemy Lands

"Spirit of Freeport," purchased with war bonds bought by local residents of this community in 1942 is coming to Nassau County after many missions over the enemy's territory in World War II and the Korean campaign. Members of her crew are to be the guests of the village for four days, starting Armistice Day, and numerous events have been planned in their honor.

SERIES OF EVENTS PLANNED FOR CREW OF "SPIRIT OF FREEPORT" BOUGHT IN 1942 THROUGH WAR BOND PURCHASES

ATTENTION!

All organizations desiring to have their color displayed in the "Spirit of Freeport" parade should contact Parade Marshal Sam Gerber not later than Monday, Nov. 6th.

B-29 to Be on View at Mitchell Field; Mayor Issues Proclamation

Back in 1942, motivated by the patriotic fervor of World War II when things weren't going to well for the Allies, residents of Freeport invested $700,450 in War Bonds. The slogan for this particular drive was "Buy Bonds to Buy Bombers." A set of quotas was set up as to the amounts required to purchase various types of airplanes. And the Freeport total was sufficient to finance two heavy bombers, a light bomber and a fighter plane. Robert E. Patterson was the campaign chairman and nearly everybody in Freeport co-operated in making the drive a success.

Freeport Expected To Go Republican By 2 to 1 Plurality

300 Cars Participate In G.O.P. Club Parade; Moore Gives Address

Freeport is expected to give the candidates of the Republican party its usual two to one plurality or better in Tuesday's election despite the fact that the Democrats have conducted an unusually strenuous campaign this year in Nassau County. The polls will be open from 6 A.M. to 7 P.M., and probably between 7,000 and 8,000 of the 9,962 who registered last month will go to the polls in the 17 Election Districts.

The local campaign was brought to a dramatic close last night when more than 300 cars participated in a torchlight motorcade through the village, and a rally was held in the William Clinton Story Post, A.L. Dugout.

Featured in the procession were five floats, one from each section of the village and the other a large elephant, representing the Republican party. The participants assembled in the Municipal Stadium, where four divisions were formed, representing the Southwest, the Northwest and the Northeast areas, each of which was represented by a float.

The Southwest float was a replica of the Statue of Liberty, that of the southwest was Guy Lombardo's power boat "Tempo VI," aboard a trailer, symbolizing "The (Continued on Page 9)

Ko-Ko With Injured Heel, Performs On Crutch in 'Mikado' Presentation

Carving about the stage on a crutch is not the usual practice of Ko-Ko in the presentation of the Gilbert and Sullivan operetta "Mikado." But Al Gross did that in the second performance of the comedy by the Freeport Community Choral in the Freeport High School Saturday night. During the first presentation, Friday night, Nanki-Poo, in the person of Herbert Wilhelm, was a little too strenuous in tugging the rope around Ko-Ko's neck and he was pulled off balance striking his left heel violently against the floor of the stage.

Examination revealed three veins had been ruptured in the heel, and for a time it was feared Gross would not be able to take the role on Saturday night.

But he refused to be counted out. Though he had never handled a crutch before, he practiced with one during the day and gave a truly remarkable performance, despite the handicap of being unable to put his heel to the floor though the sole of his stocking had been padded with sponge rubber to ease the shock if he accidentally did strike the board. But Nanki-Poo didn't put the rope about Ko-Ko's neck the second time.

And if that was not enough as Ko-Ko was reluctantly pleading for Katisha (Terry Greenblatt) to marry him (to save his neck) in the singing of "There is Beauty in the Bellows of the Blast," the lights faded and the stage was thrown in complete darkness as Katisha asked "where are you?" and Ko-Ko replied "where are you?" ## Center For Senior Group Draws More Than 40 At First Session

Freeport's project for the senior age group got off to a flying start Tuesday when more than 40 persons assembled in the Legion Dugout and spent an enjoyable afternoon. A group of hostesses comprising members of the Freeport Community Council, helped those who were strangers, to become acquainted. Every person present signed a guest book.

Mrs. Hugh Jackson presided at the piano for community singing from sheets of popular songs provided by Guy Lombardo. Mrs. Harriet Rabe, who is in charge of the work for the older age group in the New York State Department of Education, greeted the group.

"Through activity and companionship this should be the richest period of our lives," she said. Samuel L. Israel, president of the council, also brought greetings and said the people could develop the center along any lines the group fit.

During the afternoon some played cards; others read and still others sang. Refreshments, provided by Maier's Bakery, Herman's Cake Box and others, were served.

It was announced that the Dugout would be open Tuesdays and Mondays, except on holidays, from 9:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., for those interested to while away the time as they desired. Monday committees are to be named and a program worked out. The Dugout will not be open Tuesday because of Election Day.

Hostesses were Mrs. L. S. Yudin, Mrs. Milton B. Hubson, Mrs. John Stiegemeyer, Mrs. Jerome Gold, Mrs. Elizabeth F. Kelly, and Mrs. Abraham Guttman, while Mrs. Arthur Marrigan and Mrs. Marion Pegley were advisors.

Letter from Crew Member
"We got the ship at March Air Force Base, Calif., our home, glad to be coming to Okinawa. Her World War II record is reputed to be excellent."

"Yesterday we flew our tenth mission of the Korean campaign. Except for a few flak holes picked up on our eighth mission, the 'Old Gal' is as good as new."

"We have come to develop a grand affection for the island and though we would bring you up to date with her activities, as they say in the 'Air Force,' she's a goer."

"In reply to the B-29 crew, after conferring with Mayor Dossie, the Village Trustees and Joseph Goldblatt, president of the Freeport Chamber of Commerce, Mr. Weller wrote Freeport would be glad to in- (Continued on Page 9)

'Polio Poster Child' Entries Close Nov. 15

Only 12 days remain in which to enter Nassau youngsters in the "Polio Poster Child" contest. Mrs. George A. Stevenson, chairman of the 1951 March of Dimes, warned today.

Every Nassau youngster between the ages of four and seven who at any time has been stricken by infantile paralysis is eligible for entry in the contest, she said.

"Even the boys and girls who were entered in the 1950 'Polio Poster Child' contest but were not selected by the judges have another opportunity this year. The only child who cannot be considered again this year of course, is pretty Ellen Morris of Inwood, our poster child for the 1950 March of Dimes.

Judging will be done from photographs, Mrs. Stevenson added, and descriptions of the youngster. His or her age, details of polio illness and any other pertinent information should accompany the photo or snapshot.

Entries must be mailed to the Nassau County Chapter, National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, 1511 Franklin ave., Mineola, L.I., and postmarked not later than midnight, Nov. 14. The contest closes November 15.

Mrs. Stevenson explained that the selection of a Nassau child to represent the annual appeal for funds for county polio victims has helped to tell the story of the chapter's work for Nassau residents who have been stricken by the disease.

Dance Classes Planned For High School Students

As a result of a panel discussion participated in by students of the ninth and tenth years of the Freeport High School, the Parent-Teacher Association group for that period, has decided to conduct classes in social dancing and engage a paid instructor to teach the boys and girls.

This was voted at the October meeting at which the topic of the discussion was "Students' Attitude Toward Social Recreation." Joan Browning, Marilyn Marino, Letitia Cushman, Mary Freeman, Peter Hellsten, Joseph Cleary, Peter Catalano, and Norman Foster participated. Mrs. Patrick Sullivan, the program chairman, introduced the speaker, Mrs. A. J. Mackenzie, chairman, was authorized to appoint a committee to plan for the dance classes.

Junior High Parents Visit Classrooms

More than 200 parents and teachers attended the first meeting of the seventh and eighth grade unit of the Freeport Junior-Senior High School P.T.A. in the Grove st. school auditorium.

After a short business meeting with the chairman, Mrs. Samuel Wolsk, presiding, the parents were conducted to the various classrooms where the teachers outlined classroom work and explained what is expected of the seventh and eighth grade students. At the conclusion of the program, questions taken from a general question box were answered by J. Wesley Southard, vice-principal.

A play, "The Ins and Outs" with eighth grade students participating will be presented at the next meeting scheduled for Monday night, Dec. 11.

Gerald Thayer Addresses Woman's Advance Club

Gerald Thayer, principal of the Baldwin High School, addressed the Woman's Advance Club of Baldwin, at a luncheon meeting held in the Coral House. Mrs. Floyd Sears, president, presided and Mrs. William Watkinson, introduced the speaker.

Mr. Thayer gave an account of the facilities available to the 1,300 students enrolled in the high school, and told how rooms could be rearranged to accommodate several hundred more. He pointed out that if enrollment reached greater numbers within the next few years, two alterations were possible. One would be to add 2 more periods to the 8 period schedule now being used and the other, to resort to a complete double session. Mr. Thayer added, however, that in view of the building program now under discussion, the possibility of either schedule being inaugurated was remote.

Announcement was made of a card party to be held by the sewing group tomorrow night in the Baldwin High School cafeteria. Proceeds will go to supplement the scholarship fund of $250 awarded annually by the Club to a worthy Baldwin girl.

Home Bureau Hears Talk On 'A Lapse in Time'

"A Lapse in Time" was the topic of Miss Ruth Cornwell, guest speaker at a meeting of the South Nassau Home Bureau of Roosevelt, Thursday night in the Memorial Presbyterian Church.

Miss Cornwell spoke on family life as consisting of three stages—beginning, expanding and contracting. The beginning stage she said, consists of a husband and wife learning that to understand one another, rather than reform, sets a good beginning in family life. The expanding period, she added, refers to the children in a family unit. "Youth will fashion their own lives after their home life," she said. "They want the assurance of belonging and sharing in all aspects of living." The contracting period, Miss Cornwell described as a relaxing stage for the parent, leaving a new hobby or taking that trip that has been put off for so long," she asserted.

Miss Cornwell, a Cornell graduate,

Bids on New School To Be Opened Nov. 29

Bids for contracts for the construction of the new school to be erected in the southwestern section of the village are to be opened at a meeting of the Board of Education to be held Wednesday night, Nov. 29.

Four contracts are to be bid on, the general construction, heating and ventilation, plumbing and sanitary and electrical work.

If the total of the bids comes within the range of the estimated cost voted by the school district at a special election last Spring, the Board of Education will be enabled to award the contracts immediately and work can be gotten under way without loss of time.

The school which is designed to relieve the congestion in the Archer st. school and permit the pupils of the Grove st. school to be transferred to the new building is to be erected in the block bounded by West Merrick rd., Washington st., Smith st., and South Bayview ave.

More Sewers Completed In Later District 13

Property owners along a considerable portion of Lateral Sewer District 13 may now connect their homes with the sewer system, Village Engineer Herbert M. Wood announced at a meeting of the Sewer Commission Friday night in the Municipal Building. He advised that final inspection has been made of the pipes in the area and that they had been accepted for service.

The streets are as follows:

Front st. from Roosevelt to South Long Beach ave.

Front st. from Nassau to Wood-street ave.

East side of South Long Beach ave. from Front st. to double-flush manhole approximately 300 feet north of Adams st.

No Deaths Among Firemen in Year It Is Announced At Memorial Rites

For the first time in more than 25 years no deaths occurred among the members of the Freeport Fire Department during the past year, the Rev. Reginald H. Scott, chaplain, reported at the annual memorial service held in the Transfiguration P. E. Church, Parish House Sunday afternoon. However, Mayor Robert L. Dossie said, it was a good thing to have an annual memorial service since it was a time tribute could be paid to those who have passed away in previous years.

"Freeport is proud of its Fire Department," Chaplain Scott said, "and it should be, because the department constitutes the most important group of men in the village."

The chaplain said the men should try to remember the faces of the volunteers who have passed on so they will be able to recognize them when they arrive in the other world. It is a wonderful thing to contemplate our hearts on those who are over there," he added, "and who are still with us in another world. They see everything you do and all that goes on every time you go out to fight a fire. Any it is a great thing to be conscious of the fact that they are trying to help us in our work."

Mrs. William Wolff presided at the piano and there was a tenor solo by Joseph Martz. The Fire Department band also played a selection.

The memorial service followed the annual inspection of the men and apparatus of the department by the South Shore. Swank decor... carpeted floor—velvet drapes... candlelight... wonderful food. Relax to sweet music... hear the incomparable voice of Mimi.

Chiropractic Auxiliary Has Membership Tea
There was a large attendance at a membership tea given by the Long Island District of the Women's Chiropractic Society, Inc. at the home of Anna Ajosa, chiropractor, 1 Woodside ave., Malverne.

Mrs. Norman Starcke of Freeport, president, greeted the welcomed guests, and the program chairman, Mrs. James W. Long also of Freeport, introduced Mrs. Ajosa, who spoke on "The Auxiliary, Its Work and the Importance of Belonging."

It was then enjoyed by the women: Katherine S. Miller, chiropractor and Mrs. Kenneth M. Young, both of Baldwin, members of the committee of arrangements, presided at the tea table.

Mrs. James W. Marling of Baldwin, historian and a charter member of the Auxiliary, who is leaving to establish residence in Arizona, received a travel clock as a farewell gift from the group.

The next regular meeting will be held Thursday night Nov. 16 at the home of Mrs. Otilie Huether in St. Albans.

Naval Reserves Seek High School Recruits

Speakers to Address F.H.S. Students on Nov. 20-Requirements

U. S. Naval Reserve Battalion 3-19, which has its army on Hanse ave., will carry its recruiting campaign for high school students to F. H. S. on Monday, Nov. 20. Recruiting Officer Allan A. Cruckshank announced today.

In conjunction with a talk by a Naval Reserve Officer, the Navy's Special Devotee Center at Sands Point, L. I., has a mobile unit which it will bring to the high school to demonstrate some of the equipment and training devices used at the Freeport Naval Reserve Center.

Since the outbreak of hostilities in Korea many of the officers and enlisted men in the Freeport battalion have seen active service. World War II have been recalled to active duty. This leaves a number of vacancies which must be filled if the organization is to continue as a well balanced unit, Mr. Cruckshank said.

Men between 17 and 44 years of age may enroll in the Naval Reserve unless they have been given a draft physical examination prior to induction into the Army. For men with previous Naval Reserve Service the maximum age limit is 50 1/2 years.

The local unit is well equipped to train men for officer rates in electronics, gunnery, engineering, radio, shipfitting and machinery. They have a fine Naval Training Center on Hanse avenue with well equipped shops and classrooms. The instructors are all experienced men.

Women between the ages of 18 and 44 and who are high school graduates can enroll to train for clerical and administrative duties. Women with prior Naval Reserve experience may enroll if they are between 18 and 50 1/2 years of age.

The pay of a seaman recruit is $2.50 a night, 2 1/2 after a short period of training and a two weeks training course he can advance himself to a seaman apprentice and to $2.75 for 12 drills a quarter the seaman recruit pay is $30 and for a full year $120 plus $32 for the two weeks cruise or a total of $182.

The Navy Department loans the new man an $80 uniform, which includes a pea coat, black shoes, white and blue dress uniforms and the dress uniform as well as hats, belts and undershirts.

The recruit 14 day training period may be taken almost any time during the year—at the present time it is being conducted on five destroyers in the Brooklyn Navy Yard. This includes shipboard indoctrination, general deck and gunnery training and learning the nomenclature of Naval vessels.

Members of the Naval Reserve with twenty years of satisfactory service will be eligible to receive retirement pay at age 60.

Parent Guidance Group Sees 'Preface to A Life'

"Preface to A Life," a new film showing the effect of three different backgrounds on a child was shown at the October meeting of the Freeport Parent Guidance Association—a community project—sponsored by the Parent Education Group of the Seaman ave. school P. T. A.

A large group of parents participated in the lively question and answer period which followed the film and was conducted by the panel consisting of Dr. Irving Fradkin, pediatrician, William S. Hughes, principal, and Mrs. Arthur Harrigan, social worker. The meeting was held jointly with the Pre-School Group of the P. T. A.

New Deputy Visits Local Jr. O.U.A.M.

Henry Welsler, of Minnola, new deputy state councilor, presented his credentials at a meeting of Freeport Council, Jr. O.U.A.M., in its lodge rooms on Church st.

He was accompanied by a delegation of present and past officers of East End Council-Brooklyn, of which he is a member. They were extended a welcome by Councilor Ernest Sumpt and during the "Good E. O. Order" period, Past Councilor E. V. Baldwin presided. Talks were given on various matters concerning the order in general and Freeport Council—especially. The council was complimented on its growing membership and increased attendance.

Master Masons' Night Observed At Meeting Of Nazareth Shrine

Master Masons' Night was observed by Nazareth Shrine, Order of the White Shrine of Jerusalem, at its monthly meeting Friday night in Spartan Temple, following a short business session. Mrs. Mildred J. Blacker, worthy high priestess, and Matthias Buckner, watchman of shepherds, presided.

Honors of the throne were extended to Mrs. Helen Blackmer, supreme material objective chairman of the third district; George Hulse, watchman of shepherds, Ruth Shrine, Rutheburg, and all past worthy high priestesses and watchmen of shepherds of the local court, present.

Charles Hawkins, master of Spartan Lodge, and Fred Apfel, emment commander, of Nassau Commandery, K. T., attended with delegations of their respective groups. Kenneth E. Vought, district deputy grand master, of the local Masonic district, spoke on the origin and workings of Masonry. Entertainment was provided under the chairmanship of Mrs. Honora Watkins.

There were piano solos by Dianne Andrieu, of West Hempstead; a solo dance, "Spirit of Halloween" by Mrs. Teresa V. Thayer, and a minuet by a group of Shrine members comprising Mrs. Dorothy Hoffmann, Mrs. Katherine Clark, Mrs. Eleanor Cohen, Mrs. Henrietta Fay, Mrs. Watkins, Mrs. Margaret Ploss and Mrs. Marie Glassy.

Plans were completed for the two-day bazaar to be held in Spartan Temple tomorrow and Saturday. Luncheon is to be served both days from 11 A.M. to 2 P.M. and supper from 4:30 to 7:30 P.M. with Mrs. Louise Bohrer as chairman. Department chairmen are: Mrs. Emma Scherer, aprons; Mrs. Delmuth, toys; Mrs. Watkins, candy; Mrs. Estelle Kehm, handkerchiefs and stationery; Mrs. Viola VanderClue, Needlework; Mrs. Anne Lindsay, curiosity shop; Mrs. Combs, home-cooked foods; Mrs. Thayer, plants and flowers; Mrs. Clarke, post office; and Mr. Buckner, games and fun, with the assistance of the men. There will be fortune telling by Mrs. Lillian Kuhhart.

Towns Teens

By FRANCES PRATT

Well, another football game is over and for Freeport another win has been recorded. However, what should have been a relatively easy game for F. H. S. turned into quite a thriller with the Red Devils barely squeaking by Far Rockaway with a margin of 34 to 27. Outstanding in this game were Tony Lo Presti and as usual "Skip" Ullip. . . . Once more Tony Primavera deserves a great deal of praise—he only missed one conversion again this time! That guy can't miss. . . .

Despite the freezing weather—and believe me it was really cold at the stadium last Friday night—there was quite a crowd and the school spirit ran high. The F. H. S. band put on one of the finest exhibitions I have ever seen. The performance of "Stairway to the Stars" was one of the most spectacular of their many formations. Outstanding at any time is the performance of drum-major NEIL FENNEMA. However, she was particularly outstanding in her presentation of "sparkle" twirling. It was really something spectacular to see.

Everybody watched the Republican Club parade last night, the band and several Freeport students were featured. . . . "Molasses, Molasses" that's all you hear around the hall of F.H.S. It's getting to be a habit with Freeport students!

At this time I want to express the thanks and appreciation to "Mom" Gaudsrich—Mom, we all really appreciate all that you have done for us. No problem is too trivial for you. . . . You always have a friendly word for everyone—that's why we voted you the favorite of F. H. S.

Mr. "X" turned out to be none other than Kenny Bliss. RUTH FENNEMA is recovering nicely from her operation. MITZ PETROVITS who has been sidelined with pneumonia is recovering. . . . LIZ STRECKER returned from the Lehigh weekend, tired but exuberant. . . . Could it be that AL HARRIS has his eye on new cheerleader PEGGY SMITH? DON'T FORGET TO ENTER THE FOOTBALL CONTEST!! That's all for now. . . . SEE YOU AROUND. . . .

It's the PARTY LINE

- ★ Everything for everybody at no cost to 'nobody'.
- ★ Forget the facts. Twist 'em to your own purposes.
- ★ Wall Street is the root of all evil for all candidates (except ours).
- ★ Create confusion, stir up racial and religious sympathies and bigotries.
- ★ Charge your opponents with your own party's guilt: conspiracy, police graft, negligence, squandering, payroll padding, jobs for the faithful, discrimination.
- ★ Accept the political support of ANYONE. Promise ANYTHING!
- ★ Stop at nothing to win: Whisper, rumor, hint, threaten, lie, abuse, rave.

SMEAR! SNEER! SMEAR!

That's the Democratic Party Line in this Election!

THE REPUBLICAN PARTY LINE IS BOTH "BUSY" and "CLEAR"

COMMIES — There are none in Albany or Mineola. There won't be any! It's too unhealthy. They know it!

SCHOOLS — Gov. Dewey has doubled State Aid for Education. Nassau's legislators won $5 million more for their county's districts by working for a formula revision. There is no party politics in Nassau's schools, no graft in supplies like New York City! Real Home Rule!

REVENUES — Nassau gets back from Albany 80 cents out of every dollar. New York State gets back from Washington ONLY 6 cents out of every dollar!

L.I.R.R. — A Federal Court has named two trustees to re-organize the railroad. The court, alone, is going to make the final decisions! The Nassau County Transit Commission has led in the fight to get better service and have the real facts presented to the court. The county attorney and special expert counsel are protecting commuters' interests. Every fare increase has been opposed! It was Gov. Lehman's Democratic Public Service Commission that okayed the Rockville Centre gantlet! The Democratic ICC (Interstate Commerce Commission) has sole authority over safety devices on all railroads.

RACEWAY — Nassau twice tried to tax Roosevelt Raceway and New York City Democrats joined to defeat both attempts. The State this year taxed the Raceway $4½ million. It has already taxed Roosevelt Raceway over $30 million. New York State won't share that tax money with any one county — but with all counties. Nassau gets back its share, plus real estate taxes. Nassau got $15 million from Belmont only because N.Y.C. was broke and the State permitted us to share a temporary local tax.

THE LAW — Try, as they did, Democrats couldn't drag Nassau's police into their stinking Brooklyn mess of book-makers and cops. An alert department, a fearless 'D.A.' gave the lie to their repeated sly attempts.

WORKS — N. Y. State has spent over $20 million in parkways in this county. Nassau contributed $6 million more for acquisition of land. The Roslyn Viaduct and approaches represent a $3 million recent improvement. Miles more of parkways are already under construction or being planned. Engineers are surveying a north-south thruway across the county right now! The Nassau County Dept. of Public Works is engaged in a $10 million road program. Atlantic Beach Bridge is costing $6 million.

VETERANS — A $400 million bonus. $70 million for emergency housing, over $2 million right in Nassau at Lido and Santini. Education for 100,000 G.I.'s, 4,800 yearly scholarships of $350 for 4 years. Best Veterans Service Agency in nation. Preference in Civil Service!

CIVIL RIGHTS — Nations first anti-discrimination laws! And they are working in: employment, education, housing, armed forces. Democrats prefer to talk about Civil Rights in the State, not enact them in Nation!

TAXES — N. Y. State today takes 2.7 cents from each taxpayer's dollar. Under the Democrats, it took 4.2 cents. Debt has been cut in half! There has been no increase in the Nassau County taxrate for 7 years! No change in town taxrates in many years. (Good Business!)

Shubert School Pupils To Give Program Today

Christine Nelson, a Freeport pupil, participated in a square dance which featured a program given by the seventh grade class taught by Miss Louise Boudreau at an upper assembly of the Shubert School, Baldwin, last Thursday. Others who were seen in the dance are: Charlene Martin, Ward Smith, Richard Wilcox, Marylou Hillsgrove, Richard Carbonaro, Barbara Turner, Curt Shaner, Barbara Kalcher, Jerry Roganish, Marilyn Berkes, Maureen Mabry, Edward D'Amico, Richard Logan, Barbara Sidra, and Donald Kitz.

A drum demonstration was performed by Richard Raschdorf. Eugene Aleschin played a violin solo. Both boys are from the High School. The program was closed with a talk by Vance Bryant emphasizing, in correlation with United Nations' Week, that today's best hope for peace is to have faith and work with the United Nations.

Shubert School will hold Open School Night on Thursday night, Nov. 9. Parents have been invited to visit their children's school and meet the teachers, see the work and find out what the aims of the class are to be for the year. The General Inspection begins at 7:30 o'clock. There will follow talks to the parents by the teachers. The P.T.A. will bring the evening to a close by serving refreshments in the auditorium.

LEGION AUXILIARY TO BE GUESTS OF POST
Members of the Ladies Auxiliary of William Clinton Story Post, A.L., will be the guests of the post as a spaghetti dinner to be given in conjunction with its semi-monthly meeting tomorrow night in the Dugout. Motion pictures also will be shown.

SCHMIDT WINS AGAIN IN FOOTBALL CONTEST
Milford Schmidt, 88 Rutland rd., a repeater, won The Leader Football Contest last week.

Scanning The Sports Scene

By DICK SCHAAAP

Freeport's all-winning Red Devils were held to a seven point edge by an underdog Far Rockaway eleven as the Devils notched their fifth consecutive triumph. Coach Bill Ashley emptied his bench and employed several jayvee gridsters as a measure to keep down the score.

The Sea Horses, however, appeared a better squad than their record would indicate. Far Rockaway displayed a pair of excellent breakaway backs despite an apparent weakness in their line.

Tony LoPresti and Skip Ulp bore the brunt of the Red Devil attack. Backed twice, LoPresti's tallies coming in the first half and Ulp's in the second. Joe Masone, Hank Bandholz and Dave Jones were the other Freeport standouts. Tony Primavera booted four out of five placements between the goal posts.

Freeport will have to be ready for a top-notch Trenton team tomorrow night when the Devils journey to the New Jersey school. The Jersey team has lost only one game, a 34-13 decision to Princeton High School, and battled to a 7-7 deadlock against Lawrenceville Prep School.

A top game will be played November 11 at Baldwin with undefeated Baldwin host to equally unbeaten Mepham. Baldwin maintained its unblemished record last Saturday by edging Hempstead, 9-7, by virtue of a last period score. The Baldwin passing combine of Dick Grotz to Charlie Shaw lays claim to being the best aerial weapon in the county.

Greg Maushart was the entire Mepham attack last week as he reached paydirt four times in the Bucs' 27-0 triumph over hapless Mineola. The pile-driving Mepham tailback now has racked up 68 points and is 25 points ahead of Freeport's Skip Ulp and Manhasset's Stan Kushay in second place.

CONTEST NEWS—There are just three weeks left in the contest so be sure to keep sending in your entries. Congratulations to this week's winner, Milford Schmidt, a second-time winner. Bill Brown leads for the grand prize but he is closely followed by Ted Fishkind, Vinnie Grasso and Herb Cohen.

PICKING PICKS—Our selections continued to be red-hot as we again had eleven right and only one wrong last week. Our season totals now stand at 51 correct while missing out on 16 for a percentage of .755. We like Freeport over Trenton by one touchdown. Manhasset should take Garden City by six points in an important North Shore encounter. We figure Mepham over Central by two touchdowns with Baldwin over Mineola by the same margin. In the other games, we pick Champlain over Brooklyn Prep, East Rockaway over Westhampton, Hicksville over Farmingdale, Port Washington over Great Neck, Sewanhaka over Lawrence, Oceanside over Long Beach, Woodmere over Malverne, South Side over Lynbrook and Westbury over Oyster Bay.

ALUMNI JOINTINGS—Bill Chiarvino played a key part in Leigh's thrilling 21-18 triumph over favored Rutgers. In the final stanza, when Rutgers had driven to a first down on the Leigh five yard line, the defensive guard from Freeport recovered by Rutgers' Walt LaPrairie, also of Freeport. Ed "Tiger" Boyle and Chris Sweeney hold down key posts on the hard-charging Fordham forward wall that stopped San Francisco last week. At the close of the collegiate campaign, we will pick an all-Freeport collegiate squad.

Episcopal Men Plan Communion Breakfast

The Episcopal Men's Club of the Transfiguration P.E. Church is to have a communion breakfast Sunday morning. The members will attend the 8 o'clock service, listen to a sermon by the rector, the Rev. Reginald H. Scott, and partake of communion. The breakfast will follow in the Parish House.

Plans for the event were announced by Cleveland F. Pratt at the monthly meeting in the Parish House which was preceded by an Italian spaghetti dinner. The meal was prepared by a committee comprising William K. Tenney, Eugene Wells, Clayton Green and Joseph Chambers under the expert directions of Rocco Marafioti.

John R. P. Goller reported on the progress of the new building and President Lester Hall was authorized to appoint a committee to plan for an event to raise funds for the building fund. Members of the club bowl every Tuesday night on the Elks clubhouse alley.

Motion pictures loaned by Charles Salvato were shown after the meeting. They included a travelogue of Hong Kong, the Philippine Islands and other points in the Far East and "Songs of the West" in which the members joined.

SHUBERT SCHOOL PUPILS GIVE UNITED NATIONS

Patricia Rickert, a Freeport pupil, enacted the role of a little friend from China, at the presentation of a short sketch, "The United Nations," in the lower grade chapel of the Shubert School, Baldwin, last Thursday.

Others who will participate will be Deborah Schwab, narrator; Henry Matthy, boy from England and Jeanne Burlew, French girl. Other parts of the program will be about October Leaves and Halloween. All members of the cast will take part. Marly Berkes, a seventh grade pupil, will read the scripture selection.

JACK STERLING SALUTES THE H. C. BOHACK CO.

Jack Sterling popular WOCB radio star who has given "salutes" to many Long Island communities during recent months, recently saluted H. C. Bohack Co. for opening many new super markets throughout Long Island in 1950. He interviewed George T. Phillips, grocery sales manager of the Bohack Co. and discussed new methods of food store merchandising on this morning's program.

'Spirit of Freeport' Week

Freeporters are to have a rare privilege during the four days starting Saturday, Nov. 11. For that period the village is to be host to the vanguard of the "Spirit of Freeport," a B-29 bomber acquired by the Government in 1942 with the proceeds of purchases of War Bonds by Freeporters with that in view. This was only one of three ships made possible by investments of local residents totaling more than $700,000, but the government would permit the naming of only one plane after a community.

"The Spirit of Freeport" served in the Pacific Theatre of Operations during World War II, but received no publicity. However, when it returned to action during the Korean campaign and crew members discovered that it was acquired through bond sales in this community, they advised certain authorities. As a result an invitation to visit Freeport was extended them, and accepted with permission of authorities in Washington.

Advice from the Army showed "The Spirit of Freeport" participated in 80 missions in Korea, operating out of Okinawa, and was hit several times by flak. Consequently a wonderful opportunity is to be given to honor the men who have seen actual combat in the present conflict and every resident of the community should join in doing so. And while the men are here, the B-29 will be placed on exhibition at Mitchell Field where it should be viewed by all who get to the reservation.

Mayor Robert L. Dosssee has proclaimed the week beginning Thursday, Nov. 9, as "The Spirit of Freeport Week," and Armistice Day, "The Spirit of Freeport Day," and called on all residents of Freeport to join in their observance.

Bomber from Korea

With the crew "on a four-day holiday as soon as your duties in the U.S. Air Force will permit." "We want you to learn first-hand that 'The Spirit of Freeport' lives not only in the plane you fly, but also in the hearts of the community that gave you that plane."

Responding to the invitation, the crew of the B-29, signing themselves "The Freeport Kids," wrote on Oct. 17, that "thanks to you the Air Force has seen fit to let us fly 'The Spirit of Freeport' to the home of its donors as soon as it is practicable."

Ship to be at Mitchell Field

While the crew is being entertained, the "Spirit" will be on display at Mitchell Field. Decorated with a gigantic Liberty Head on its forward fuselage, the ship will bring first hand to the people of Long Island the accomplishments of the Far East Air Force. It is the only one of the North Korean aggressors and setting the stage for final victory.

Based in Okinawa, the "Spirit" flew 30 combat missions, on one of which it joined scores of other B-29s in the famous "saturation" raid against Red troops massing in the bend section of the Nakdong River for a climatic attack on the Pusan pocket.

The Korean ventures of the "Spirit" started aptly enough on July 4, last, at Riverside, Cal. Altered July 2 that a move was imminent, the ground crew rushed to completion a major inspection, the flight crew was reassembled, the ship was test-hopped, found ready and loaded for its flight across the Pacific Ocean. It arrived in Okinawa on July 9, and saw action for the first time on July 13.

The "Spirit of Freeport" flew 27 consecutive missions from Okinawa to Korea before being forced to cancel a single scheduled assignment on account of mechanical failure. All told the ship has a record of approximately 2,500 flying hours in the air, more than a hundred flying days. During that time it has traveled an estimated half million miles, long enough to have taken it from the earth to the moon and to have made a return trip. It has burned approximately 1,250,000 gallons of oil in its four big engines and used approximately 7,500 gallons of lubricating oil.

Mayor Dosssee has appointed Don Weller chairman of the committee of arrangements for carrying out the plan. The Mayor addressed a meeting of newspapers and magazine representatives Tuesday afternoon. He told of the bond drive of 1942 in which the money for the purchase of "The Spirit of Freeport" was provided and of the accounts received of the performances of the ship during World War II and the Korean campaign, and of the events leading up to the invitation for the 36-man air and ground crew to visit Freeport for four days during which there will be parades, tours, entertainments, dinners and many other activities.

In his proclamation setting aside a week as "Spirit of Freeport Week" Mayor Dosssee said:

"There comes an occasion to every community, once in a life-time, which deserves the full attention and cooperation of its residents. Freeport now has such an event. It is completely devoid of politics, commercialism and individual benefit; instead it is an occasion which is appropriate to the trying times of today and symbolic of unity and the United Nations ever-struggling to establish a permanent world peace."

Referring to the War Bond campaign of 1942 in which funds for the purchase of "The Spirit of Freeport" were raised, Mayor Dosssee told of the letter received from the members of the crew, and continued:

"Freeport 'Adopts' Crew"

"It was felt that since this plane was built through the co-operation and support of the people of Freeport, then too some token of appreciation, which would be a symbol of all our fighting men, should come from the people of Freeport to the men who flew the ship."

"More packages of cigars, candy, etc., would be sent to the crew of the B-29 should be adopted by Freeport and the feeling of appreciation should be shown by welcoming them into our midst."

The Mayor announced "a grand four-day reception has been planned," and added, "so with this thought in mind, it gives me great pleasure to proclaim the seven days from November 9 to 16, as the 'Spirit of Freeport' week and furthermore I do proclaim Saturday, November 11, Armistice Day, as a special Village day to be known as 'Spirit of Freeport Day.'"

"As your Mayor and also as a citizen of Freeport, I wholeheartedly request your full co-operation to make this a successful demonstration of American appreciation of the devotion to duty shown by the members of our air forces."

"Ship of State," and supported the candidacies of Thomas E. Dewey for re-election as Governor, and Joe E. Hanley, U. S. Senator.

"The American Way of Life" was demonstrated by the Northwest area float in which soldiers, Marines and sailors were shown "pulling ropes" for Dewey. That of the Northeast was a farm wagon loaded with cornstalks, pumpkins and other fall produce, with those aboard showing signs calling for the re-election of Congressman Leonard W. Hall, Samuel D. Gerber was grand marshal.

Police Chief Peter Elar was in an open car heading the parade, followed by armed Sheriff H. Alfred Vollmer, the local leader, and Ralph L. Marshall, president of the club as passengers.

Starting from the Stadium about 6 o'clock the procession first toured Bennington Park, then took in nearly every section of the village before passing the stand in the Municipal Park at North Ocean and Brooklyn aves., where it was reviewed by State Comptroller Frank C. Moore, candidate for lieutenant-governor, Sheriff Vollmer, President Marshall and others. Music was provided by the Freeport High School band which left the ranks after Bennington Park, and the Fire Department band.

Comptroller Moore gave the principal address at the Dugout early, and numerous other candidates dropped in during the evening. Refreshments were served at the close of the rally.

Gen. Clay to Address Civil Defense Workers

Freeport will be represented at a meeting of Defense Workers in the Mineola High School Monday night marking the opening of Civil Defense Week proclaimed by Nassau County Executive J. Russell Sprague, Cyril C. Ryan, the local director, announced today. The speaker is to be Gen. Louis D. Clay, Civil Defense director for the State of New York. Lieut. Gen. Cornelius W. Wickersham, the county director, will be in charge of the meeting.

MAN ABOUT TOWN

By

EDDIE VASIL

Freeport's reception to the members of the crew of "The Spirit of Freeport" is more important than anything I might write in my column. So I gladly devote the space I usually occupy to the following appeal by the committee for funds to make the occasion a success:

AN OPEN LETTER TO THE RESIDENTS OF FREEPORT

Dear Friends,

When war is declared it throws the countries involved into a fit of endless activities, but when peace is declared it throws the entire world into a brief period of wild elation, that in the past, at least, in this country, that been followed by a continuing lethargy.

On Saturday, November 11, we will celebrate in this country the Armistice Day which dates back to 1918. Following the declaration of this Armistice, attempts were made to insure that, in fact, as in definition, it was a "cessation of hostilities" for a long time to come, but the lethargy set in and the so-called League of Nations died a horrible death.

It was only the declaration of War in 1941 that really shocked us out of that lethargy. In 1945, at the close of World War II, the fighting was not used. This time we did not just declare an end to the fighting but we supposedly declared a peace and once again the lethargy began to set in.

This time, however, a few of the world leaders fought against the lethargy out of sheer necessity. The founders of the United Nations realized in their own hearts and souls, as we must realize, that a third World War could very well mean the complete destruction of all of us. Out of this desperate effort has come a United Nations Organization which, though not as wise enough not to guarantee "peace in our time" but, to give us some reason to hope that such might be achieved.

Had we lapsed completely into lethargy which followed the Armistice that we are soon to celebrate, the so called police action of the United Nations in Korea might never have been attempted, or it would have failed miserably. The lesson to be learned here is obvious, but what I would like to bring out to you at this time is the less obvious pattern for action which is inherent in this lesson.

In 1942 you and your community purchased enough War Bonds to pay for the building of several war planes. That positive action did not only bear fruit then in terms of supplies, military success, victory in the flight against inflation and a personal sense of participation in the Democratic Way of Life for which we were and are struggling, but it has also borne fruit now since at least one of those planes has played a most active part in the success of the United Nations police action in Korea. Thus you can see the chain reaction possible in any positive action towards a desired goal.

Now again, we in Freeport have the chance to cast our bread upon the waters. Your community leaders have invited the crew of that ship, a B-29 named "The Spirit of Freeport," to spend four days with us here in Freeport, as a token of our appreciation for the job they and their fellow servicemen have done.

In carrying out this program you people of Freeport are not only repaying in part a debt which can never be fully repaid, but also you are taking the lead in recognizing the importance of the job they have done. In doing this you may again cause a wave of reaction which will ripple around the world as a statement of your belief in the United Nations and the rights of the individual. And remember, the louder the splash the bigger the wave and the more ripples of reaction to tell the story of the Spirit of Freeport.

For this reason, then, we want to really welcome these boys in the fullest way possible. To this end we solicit your cooperation and financial assistance. Be at the Freeport Stadium at 10:30 Armistice Day morning to welcome the crew, and send your contribution to the fund, payable to "The Spirit of Freeport" Committee, c/o William J. Glacken, 113 West Sunrise Highway, Freeport, L. I.

Thank you.

Yours for Freeport

Mayor's Committee for the Spirit of Freeport Celebration
